

Fairness.Dignity.Respect.

Weld County Celebrates Victims' Rights Week

April 16th, 2010

April 16, 2010

8:30am - 3:00pm

AIMS Community College Corporate Education Center

5590 West 11th Street

Registration and breakfast at 8:30

Lunch promptly at 11:45

Accommodations for General Disabilities

9:15am - 10:45am

Connections for Independent Living

Honored Victim Speaker

11:00am - 11:45am

Brain Injury Interactive Demonstration Tables

11:45pm - 1:15pm

Project Illumination

Presentation and Interactive Play

1:15pm - 2:30pm

Closing Ceremonies

2:30 - 3:00pm

Register by April 12, 2010

Space is limited, and registration is available on a first come first serve basis. Cost of the entire event is free, but if you are unable to attend or find someone to take your place by April 12, you are responsible for a $20 food and attendance fee.

Please contact Victim Witness Assistance Unit, DA's Office with any questions regarding registration.

(970) 356-4010 Ext. 4746

Sponsored by the Weld County Victim Assistance and Law Enforcement (VALE) Board, Coordinating Committee for Victims of Crime (CCVC) and the Aims Community College Criminal Justice Department

