

30th Annual COVA Conference
October 29-31, 2018 • Keystone, Colorado

CALL FOR PRESENTERS

APPLICATIONS MUST BE RECEIVED BY MAY 31, 2018

COVA is pleased to announce a Call for Presenters for the 30th Annual COVA Conference to be held on October 29-31, 2018. Proposals are sought for 90-minute workshop presentations during breakout sessions each day of the conference. Topics may address issues in any of the 12 program tracks listed on the reverse side. Presenters will receive a complimentary conference registration.

Complete and return the Call for Presenters form along with the required attachments. The deadline for submission is May 31, 2018. The information provided will be used by the Conference Program Committee to identify potential conference presenters. Your submission does not guarantee selection as a presenter, but is rather a method of notifying the committee of your interest in presenting at the COVA Conference.

The Program Committee requests that all presentations address the provision of services to diverse victim populations. Examples may include but are not limited to: ethnicity, gender, physical and/or mental differences, culture, religion, language, and sexual orientation. The Program Committee also requests that all presentations address topics from a rural perspective when applicable.

We prefer that you submit your proposal by e-mail to Donna@ColoradoCrimeVictims.org. Please include your name and "CFP" in the subject line. Make sure all attachments are saved in a Word document with your name. Questions may be directed to COVA at 303-861-1160 or 1-800-261-2682. An electronic version of the form is also available on our website at www.coloradocrimevictims.org.
