

THRIVE / VOLUNTEER PROGRAM MANAGER JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title: Thrive / Volunteer Program Manager
Reports To: Program Director
FLSA Status: Non-Exempt

Who we are: WINGS is a non-profit organization whose mission is to break the cycle and heal the wounds of childhood sexual abuse by providing education, advocacy and support to adult survivors, loved ones, providers and the community. We're ushering in the day when all survivors and their supporters have access to the resources they need to speak about, heal from and thrive beyond childhood sexual abuse trauma.

Our organization has a 36-year history of providing qualified therapist referrals, therapist facilitated support groups and community and clinical education/outreach for adult survivors of childhood sexual abuse (CSA) and their loved ones. Our WINGS support groups, specifically, create a safe and confidential space for adult survivors to come together, to learn about CSA trauma - how it has impacted their lives today, and how they can move forward to create stronger, healthier futures.

Our Guiding Principles: Inclusivity | Confidentiality | Empowerment | Resilience | Voice | Self-care | Accountability | Advocacy

Position summary: WINGS is ready to create new programming for adult survivors in advanced stages of healing, as well as new volunteer training options for survivor-graduates of WINGS' programming. These new "Thrive" offerings will empower survivors to grow in voice, integration and embodiment of their strength and power, as well as become part of a larger community of adult survivor volunteers who can engage in WINGS' mission in meaningful and powerful ways.

Who you are: WINGS seeks a grounded, empathic, intuitive and positive individual to serve as our first Thrive Manager to oversee programming in this area. The ideal candidate may have lived experience with CSA trauma (and done ample recovery and advanced healing work) and/or extensive experience working with adult survivors of CSA. They will live and carry the guiding principles of WINGS, providing a strong model and container for what thriving in the aftermath of CSA can look and feel like. Our Thrive / Volunteer Program Manager will also believe in, and help steward, adult survivors' paths and processes of thriving in their own lives. They will also have experiencing working with, engaging and retaining volunteers. Other core strengths will include dedication, discipline, consistency, as well as modeling of exceptional boundaries and ethics, and clear, compassionate and trauma-informed communication to all audiences.

Ultimately, our Thrive / Volunteer Program Manager will be a people-centered, heart-driven, authentic servant-leader, who has strong relationship skills paired with strong executing skills, including the areas of organizational, time and project management. Think Yoda meets Brene Brown – a grounded and humble powerhouse, who personally thrives in fostering the intrinsic resilience of each survivor, as they move from surviving into thriving in their own lives.

As WINGS is a growing and fast-paced environment, our Thrive Manager will be engaged in coordinating a wide array of volunteers into the mission of the organization. This will include survivor-graduates and community volunteers; as well as helping to coordinate activities of support group facilitators/volunteers in partnership with WINGS Programs Team.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities: To perform this job successfully, an individual must be able to perform the following satisfactorily; other duties may be assigned.
