

Passionate about supporting adult survivors of childhood sexual abuse? Apply to join our team of clinicians serving as support group co-facilitators!

WINGS' mission is to break the cycle and heal the wounds of childhood sexual abuse by providing education, advocacy, and support to adult survivors, loved ones, providers, and communities.

Support group co-facilitators are Master's level clinicians who provide guidance, grounding, and connection in WINGS' weekly peer support groups. Note: this position does not provide therapeutic interventions.

About WINGS' Support Groups:

- Current group facilitator openings:
  - Aurora- Women's
  - Broomfield- Women's
  - Colorado Springs- Women's
  - Denver- Men's
  - Greenwood Village- Men's
  - Lakewood- Loved Ones' (all gender)
  - Lakewood- Writing (monthly, all gender)
  - Loveland- Women's
- Supports groups range in size from 7-10, depending on the space and frequencies of the group.
- Support groups are offered weekly except for the 2 writing groups, which meet monthly.
- Support groups are offered most typically in the evenings Monday through Thursday. The writing groups are offered monthly on Saturday and Sunday.

Qualifications to be a WINGS support group co-facilitator:

- Must be licensed (LPC, LCSW, LMFT, or related) or a candidate for licensure and in good standing with DORA
- Knowledge and understanding of incest/childhood sexual abuse issues
- Thorough understanding of group process and group dynamics
- Excellent therapeutic and personal boundaries and ethics
- Maintain professional liability insurance.

Responsibilities:

- Model appropriate communication and leadership skills
- Maintain member confidentiality within the organization
- Adhere to WINGS Support group structure and group rules
- Address crises both within the group and individually while maintaining appropriate boundaries.
- Keep accurate and up to date group member attendance and contact records.

For more information email Laysa Shreves at laysa.shreves@wingsfound.org.

To complete the support group co-facilitator application click here.